

Earth to Worms

Earthworms are very helpful animals that live in the soil. After a rain they come out of the soil for air. Go outside after a rain and search the earth for earthworms. Answer these questions after you find one.

Where did you see the earthworm? _____

What was it doing? _____

How did it move? _____

